

Sharon Cooper speaks up -

Hi everyone. I'm just an ordinary housewife who must deal with extraordinary circumstances. My family helps me to cope with everything that comes my way, past, present and future. My wonderful husband works hard and I know he loves me more than anything, he tells me and more importantly, he shows me. Even though we have gone through some tough times, he's always made sure that I could be home with the kids, ours and their friends.

My daughter, Callie, supports me with everything. Although she has just graduated from high school as our saga begins, she is wiser than her years. I'm glad that she has embraced my values.

Although our son, Mark, is away at college and we don't see him very much, we miss him tremendously.

I didn't tell my family much about my childhood. Let's just say that I'm glad it's in the past. You'll learn more about that when you read our adventures. I say adventures because Dad always taught me to look at things with a positive attitude. That's what gets you through.

Well, that's about all that I want to reveal for now. If you'd like to learn more, you'll have to read about it in our family saga, The Unwanted Series.
